A.O. 110. 113. The commanding officer of a reservist until he is duly appointed to a corps is the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area in which the reservist was residing at the time when he was called up on permanent service. The Officer i/c Records of a reservist until he is duly appointed to a corps is the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Sub-area in which the reservist was residing at the time when he was called up on permanent service.

114. A reservist who fails to report himself when called up on permanent service, and who thereby commits an offence under Section 15 of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, or a reservist who commits an offence under Section 6 of the Reserve Forces Act, may be tried before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction without the sanction of an officer who has power to direct the offender to be tried by court martial. The provisions of paragraph 50 of these regulations shall not therefore apply in such cases. Where the question, whether a man is a man who, under the Military Service Act, 1916, is deemed to have been enlisted and transferred to the Reserve or not, is raised on proceedings in respect of an offence alleged to have been committed by the man as a member of the Reserve, whilst he was a member of the Reserve in pursuance of the transfer under the Military Service Act, 1916, or in respect of any alleged failure to comply with any order calling him up from the Reserve for permanent service, that question shall be decided only on proceedings before a civil court.

115. The following instructions will be substituted for those contained in paragraph 70 :—

If a man in the Reserve fails, without reasonable excuse, to appear at the time and place at which he is required to attend when called out on permanent service, the officer to whom the reservist should have reported will, at the expiration of 14 days from the date of such failure, fill in and sign a certificate on Army Form D 458, and will forward it to the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area.

The Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area will make an entry of the absence in a book to be kept for the purpose and will retain Army Form D 458. Under Section 19 (2) of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882, the entry of the absence by the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area will be conclusive evidence of the fact of such absence.

A.O. 110
continued.

(Where proceedings are instituted in a civil court before the date on which the certificate on Army Form D 458 can be legally signed, or where Army Form D 458 has not been furnished to the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area, oral evidence of the absence will have to be given by the officer to whom the reservist should have reported, or by a qualified representative.)

The absentee's name will be advertised in the Police Gazette in the manner prescribed in the King's Regulations, only in those cases in which the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Area receives information that the police (in reply to enquiries made by a Recruiting Officer on Army Form W 3269) are unable to trace the absentee's whereabouts.

The particulars shown on Army Form B 124 are as far as possible to be completed before it is submitted to the Editor of the Police Gazette.

The column for "marks" will be divided in two by ruling a line downwards and the man's number in the Classification Register (Army Book 414), his class number, and his last known address will be entered, in red ink, in the right-hand space thus provided. It should be indicated on the form that the man became a reservist under the provisions of the Military Service Act, 1916.

116. Every reservist on being called up on permanent service will be required to answer truthfully certain questions contained on a "Record of Service Paper" (Army Form B 2513).

Where a reservist desires to express a preference for Naval Service he may, prior to his joining the Colours, notify this fact together with his qualifications to the Officer Commanding the Recruiting Sub-area, and that officer shall keep a record of the same.

The "Record of Service Paper" will take the place of the attestation paper, and will, during the man's subsequent service, be dealt with in the same manner as attestation papers are now dealt with.

Army Council's Instructions.

1. Men so deemed to have been transferred to the Reserve, and members of the Territorial Force who when deemed, to have been enlisted into the Regular Forces under the above Act, are discharged from their Territorial Force engagement, will be ineligible on such transfer or discharge to receive a gratuity under Article 1117 of the Pay Warrant, or a suit of civilian clothes or a money allowance in lieu thereof, but soldiers of the Territorial Force will count their embodied service with that force in assessing the amount due on final discharge from the Army, &c., as provided in Army Order 24 of 1915.

2. A man deemed to be enlisted under the above Act, who is called up for Service with the Colours but relegated to the Reserve before final approval on the ground of medical unfitness or for any other reason, or who is sent to a corps for trade test with a view to appointment to an arm or branch other than infantry, will receive the pay of an infantry private for each day on which he is present with the Colours, prior to his relegation to the Reserve or final approval. He will also be provided with rations and accommodation or allowances in lieu thereof as laid down in Army Council Instructions No. 29, dated January, 1916, in case of men called up under the Group System.

A.O. 111. II.—Non-commissioned Officers and Men released
1916. for Munitions Work.—1. It has been decided that non-commissioned officers and men of the Regular and Territorial Forces who have been released for munitions work are not eligible to continue serving for the duration of the war under Army Orders 252 and 253 of 1915, or in the case of non-commissioned officers and men of the Regular Army to re-engage or re-enlist to complete 21 years' service under Army Orders 49 and 79 of 1916.

2. Men who have been released as above, who become due for discharge on termination of engagement, including the additional twelve months' service required by Section 87 (1) Army Act, or Section 9 (5) of the Territorial and Reserve Forces Act, 1907, as the case may be, will be discharged without reference to the War Office.

3. The Officer i/c Records concerned will notify all such cases of discharge to the Secretary, War Office.

diet consisting chiefly of bran and long hay. Officers in charge of such hospitals are therefore authorized to draw 25 per cent. of the chaff ration in long hay. A.O. 114

continued.

3. It is not intended that troop horses in stables should be deprived of bedding, though straw is no longer available for this purpose. Wherever possible, therefore, bedding, other than straw, should be obtained by the troops themselves free of cost. Where this is not possible the District Purchasing Officers will arrange for its collection and distribution, the veterinary hospitals having the first call on the supply. In no instance will bedding be issued at public expense, except from the District Purchasing Officers through Supply Officers.

4. Where issues of bedding are made at public expense the following will be the quantities admissible :—

	First issue per animal.	Subsequent issues per animal daily.
	lbs.	lbs.
Mustard straw	8	6
Pea straw	8	6
Bean straw... ..	8	6
Peat moss litter	112	5
Tan	112	5
Rushes	8	5
Wood chips	56	5
Shavings	40	4
Sawdust	56	5
Heather or bracken	8	5
Wheat or oat hulls	30	5
Damaged straw	8	5
Used paillasse straw	10	5

Bean straw should not be issued if it is possible to obtain any other bedding, as, if eaten by horses, it is liable to cause colic.

Sand and cinders, where available, will be obtained by the troops free.

Of the above a mixture of sand and sawdust is the most desirable issue.

5. Attention is again called to Animal Management, pages 121 et seq. which contain recommendations for the economical feeding of chaff, which requires constant care and attention.

Sacks required for the provision of the chaff mangers mentioned in Army Council Instruction 291 of 1916

Army Orders.—April, 1916.

A.O. 114 will be demanded by units on Army Book 55, on 1916 which it should be stated for what purpose they are continued. required. On issue, Supply Officers will then strike such sacks off charge.

6. The authorization of the extra issue of 2 lb. of oats to light draught horses should not be in any way restricted in cases of horses which have been clipped, or deprived of rugs, or bedding on veterinary grounds,
since these horses specially require the extra ration in cold weather, as do also backward horses being conditioned for service oversea.

The Supply Officer should assist commanders of units in his charge to get everything possible for their animals within the limits of the scale laid down, and he should inform commanders of units from time to time what equivalents are available to replace forage (including bedding) which they may desire to under-draw.

VII.—War Savings.—1. A leaflet, which is reprinted as an Appendix to this Order, is being distributed by the General Post Office among all ranks of the Army at home and abroad setting forth the facilities offered for investing their savings in Exchequer Bonds or War Savings Certificates and the benefits to be derived from these investments.

A.O. 116
1916.

Every commanding officer should see that every man under his command has this leaflet brought to his notice and realises the advantages of investing any undrawn pay due to him.

If any commanding officer finds that the number of leaflets supplied to him is likely to be insufficient for his requirements, he should apply without delay for a further supply to The Controller, Post Office Stores Department, Studd Street Depot, Islington, London; N.

Company and squadron officers should make themselves fully acquainted with the contents of the leaflet in order that they may be in a position to reply to any questions that may be asked.

INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFICERS WHO WISH TO PURCHASE EXCHEQUER BONDS AND WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES.

War Savings Certificates.—(Only those whose incomes are not more than 300*l.* a-year can purchase these.)

The officer who wishes to invest in these should write to his agents or bankers authorizing them to (1) purchase any number up to 300 of these certificates, (2) debit his account with the amount paid to the Post Office for the certificates. He must also send to his bankers or agents for transmission to the Post Office a declaration in the following form :—

3. i. With the Expeditionary Forces.—(a) The soldier will be given Army Form W 3273, on which he will enter, above his signature, the amount he wishes to invest in Exchequer Bonds or War Savings Certificates.

(b) The officer will see that Form W 3273 is properly filled up and satisfy himself, as far as possible, that the balance due to the soldier is sufficient to cover the amount to be invested, and will record the amount in sterling in the soldier's pay-book (A.B. 64) as expenditure on Exchequer Bonds or War Savings Certificates, and will then sign the certificate on the form presented by the applicant.

(c) The officer will prepare at the end of each pay day, on Army Form W 3274, a list of the amounts applied for, separate lists for each kind of investment being made out. These lists will be sent direct to the regimental paymaster at home. A duplicate of these lists will be sent to the staff paymaster at the base.

(d) Having compiled the lists, the officer will forward the soldiers' original applications, duly certified, to the Comptroller and Accountant-General, General Post Office, London, E.C.

(e) In due course, the officer will receive from the Post Office receipts for sums invested in Exchequer Bonds. These should be distributed to the men concerned. Receipts for sums invested in War Savings Certificates will be dealt with as directed in paragraph 5.

Should the regimental paymaster find that the sum any man wishes to invest exceeds his credit balance, he will reduce the amount applied for by the necessary sum and will inform the company or squadron officer of the action taken. This officer should then inform the soldier and make the necessary amendment in the entry previously made in the man's pay-book (A.B. 64).

ii. At Home.—(a) The soldier will be given Army Form W 3273, on which he will enter, above his signature, the amount he wishes to invest in Exchequer Bonds or War Savings Certificates.

(b) The officer will see that form W 3273 is properly filled up and satisfy himself that the balance due to the soldier is sufficient to cover the amount to be invested, and will record the amount as a special cash payment in the pay and mess book and give the applicant a receipt for the amount.

(c) The officer will, at the end of each pay day, prepare on Army Form W 3274 a list of amounts applied for. Separate lists for each kind of investment will be made out. These lists will be sent to the regimental paymaster. A.O. 116

continued.

(d) Having compiled the lists the officer will forward the soldiers' original applications, duly certified, to the Comptroller and Accountant-General, General Post Office, London, E.C.

4. Soldiers in hospital.—Soldiers sick in hospital should make their applications on Army Form W 3275, which will be transmitted to the regimental paymaster concerned by the medical officer in charge of the hospital.

INSTRUCTIONS TO REGIMENTAL PAYMASTERS.

5. The regimental paymaster on receiving the lists on Army Form W 3274 will (i) verify that the amount to be invested by each soldier is covered by his credit balance, and charge the amount against his pay account. Should the regimental paymaster find that any man has applied to invest more than his credit balance allows, he will amend the list by reducing the amount applied for by the man in question, and inform the man's company or squadron officer of the amendment in order that the latter may make the necessary correction in the pay-book (A.B. 64) or pay and mess book; (ii) forward the lists to the Comptroller and Accountant-General, General Post Office, London, E.C., who will check them with the soldiers' applications, and make any necessary amendments, and return them to the regimental paymaster; (iii) on receipt of the amended lists, pay over the amounts to the Postmaster-General through the cashier of the command.

The Postmaster-General will acknowledge these payments by sending a separate receipt to the regimental paymaster for each man who has invested.

iv. As each receipt comes in from the Post Office the regimental paymaster will (a) note on the list Army Form W 3274 that it has been received, (b) record on Army Form W 3085 that the investment is completed, (c) inform the soldier of this fact, and (d) send the Postmaster-General's receipts to the Officer i/c Records, to be filed with the man's documents.

6. The regimental paymaster will deal in the same way with applications received on Army Form W 3275 informing the man when the investment has been made and of any reduction in the amount applied for it may have been necessary to make.

Army Orders.—April, 1916.

A.O. 116 7. The paymaster will keep a record of every soldier 1916 who has invested in Exchequer Bonds or War Savings continued. Certificates, and in the event of his death will notify the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, E.C., when the disposal of the sum invested will be dealt with by the General Post Office. It will not be included on Army Form O 1815, but the fact that the man had such an investment will be noted on that form.

(Copy of leaflet distributed to soldiers.)

INVESTMENTS FOR SOLDIERS.

SAVE YOUR PAY AND INCREASE YOUR SAVINGS.

IF YOU HAVE LESS THAN 5*l.* TO INVEST, SEE REVERSE.

Exchequer Bonds.

If the balance of your pay account is 5*l.* or more you can buy Exchequer Bonds carrying interest at 5 per cent.. These bonds are issued in amounts of 5*l.*, 20*l.*, or 50*l.* You may buy any number of these bonds. They are sold at their face value.

Interest is payable at the rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* for each 5*l.* on the 1st of June and another 2*s.* 6*d.* on the 1st of December in each year, and will reckon from the day your commanding officer signs your application form. The full amount of the bond will be repaid on the 1st December, 1920.

How to invest.

All you have to do is to ask for a form and fill it up to show what bonds you wish to buy. The bonds will then be bought for you through the Post Office. If you are abroad the Post Office will take care of the bonds and save the interest for you till you return home. In the event of your death, the value (bond and interest) will be payable to your legal representative.

Should you want your money back before 1920, the Post Office will sell your bonds for you at the market price, charging you a small fee (9*d.* up to 25*l.*). If you are abroad this can be arranged through your commanding officer. Of course the market price varies, and may sometimes be less and sometimes more than the face value, but there is not much risk of loss because the bonds are guaranteed by the British Government, are repayable in full on the 1st December, 1920, and carry 5 per cent. interest.

Income tax will not be charged on the interest on the bonds you hold unless you hold more than 200*l.* in the bonds and in 4½ per cent. War Loan together.

Subscriptions to the 4½ per cent. War Loan can no longer be received.

IF YOU HAVE LESS THAN 5*l.* TO INVEST, TURN OVER.

SAVE YOUR PAY AND INCREASE YOUR SAVINGS.

War savings certificates.

Many soldiers have some undrawn pay lying with the paymaster which brings in no interest. If you transfer this to the Post Office it will earn interest for you.

For every 15s. 6d. invested now, and left for five years, you will then get 1l. back, that is, compound interest at 5 per cent. a year.

At the end of the war, or when you are discharged, if earlier, the Post Office will give you a book to enable you to draw your money from any post office, but to save you all trouble and risk of the book being lost or stolen, the Post Office will hold your money and take care of your book while you are a soldier. After discharge you can have your money back at any time, with interest; 15s. 9d. one year after you invested it, and after that 1d. for each extra month until at the end of five years you get a complete sovereign. The years reckon from the day your commanding officer signs your application form.

How to invest.

If your balance is 15s. 6d. you can buy one certificate. All you have to do is to ask for a form and fill it up. For 1l. 11s. you can buy two certificates, for 2l. 6s. 6d. three certificates, and so on, and you can do this as often as your balance has grown large enough. If your balance is less than 15s. 6d. let your pay remain undrawn until it reaches that amount, and then invest.

Advantages of the scheme.

(1.) It is perfectly safe. You cannot fail to get your money back in full, even if no interest has begun to count, and, in the event of your death, your money and interest will be paid over to your family, just as if it were with the paymaster.

(2.) Your savings are earning a high rate of interest. At the end of five years your money will have grown to practically one-third more.

(3.) You can get your money back at any time after the end of the war, or after your discharge. That is the time when you are most likely to be in want of it.

The only limits are that your total income must not be more than 300l. a year, and that you cannot buy more than 300 certificates. No income tax will be charged on any interest earned under this scheme.

IF YOU HAVE LARGER SUMS TO INVEST, TURN OVER.

Separation Allowance and Allotments of A.O. 133.
Pay—Transfer of Payment.—1. (a) In consequence 1916.

of the increase in the number of cases in which it becomes necessary to transfer payment of separation allowance and allotments of pay from one paymaster to another, it has been decided to introduce forms which will provide for the particulars required to be sent to the new paymaster under para. 99 of the Separation Allowance Regulations, and also for the acknowledgment of the documents in support of the claim required by Army Council Instruction 300 of 1916.

(b) The following amendments will be made in para. 99 of the Separation Allowance Regulations :—

At the end of line 4, insert "on the appropriate Army Form*, which will be accompanied by the original documents in support of the claim."

2. (a) It has also been decided that if a casualty which necessitates a change in the rate of payment should occur before the expiration of the period covered by the book of Army Allowance Forms issued by the original paymaster, a new book shall be issued by the new paymaster in accordance with Army Council Instruction 332 of 1916, as modified by the instructions below.

(b) The following further amendments will be made in para. 99 of the Separation Allowance Regulations :—

At the end of the second sentence, in line 6, add "except as provided in para. 99A below."

At the beginning of the last sentence, in line 9, for "Each" substitute "The original".

(c) The following new para. will be inserted after para. 99 :—

99A. In the event of a casualty which necessitates a change in the rate of the weekly payment, the new paymaster will issue a new book (with Army Form W 3224 attached) in accordance with paragraph 2 of Army Council Instruction No. 332 of 1916, and will send it to the post office, together with Army Form W 3277, and a new identity certificate to be handed to the payee in exchange for the old certificate. When the old book is received, it will, after comparison with the register (Army Form W 3239) to see that payment has been correctly made, be sent together with the old identity certificate (both cancelled) to the paymaster by whom these forms were originally issued. 1916.

All cases in which the anticipated payment exceeds 40*l.* per month must be referred to the War Office with a report by one of the Command valuers before any agreement, verbal or in writing, is made.

Army Orders.—April, 1916.

A.O. 137 3. For paragraph 26 substitute—

1916 26. Provided the instructions contained in the continued. succeeding paragraphs are observed, cases where not more than 100*l.* per annum is involved may be approved by General Officers Commanding Divisions.

4. For paragraph 28 substitute—

A.O. 137. 28. Where time does not allow of the preparation of 1916. agreements in advance, it will usually be possible to obtain possession by consent, the owner being informed that terms on the footing of making good any loss directly arising out of the military occupation of the property will be arranged as soon as possible. But, if the estimated payment exceeds 40*l.* per month, the case must be referred to the War Office by telegram, if necessary, before possession is taken.

5. For paragraph 29 substitute—

A.O. 137. 29. It should be clearly intimated to local owners or 1916. tenants (and agents representing them) that the War Department has power, under the Defence of the Realm Act, to requisition any premises in the United Kingdom without payment other than of amounts awarded (as an act of grace) by the Defence of the Realm Losses Royal Commission. The Commission's powers of award are limited to sums representing direct and substantial loss incurred and damage sustained by applicants, by reason of interference with their property or business in the United Kingdom, through the exercise by the Crown of its rights and duties in the Defence of the Realm.

In cases where local owners or tenants are prepared to come to terms with the local representatives of the War Department for the military occupation of their property on the basis of the actual loss sustained, the local military authorities have been authorized to conclude agreements for periodical payments not exceeding 40*l.* per month. But this authority is only conferred in order to avoid the inconvenience and delay of applying compulsory powers and referring to the Royal Commission, when the other parties are prepared to accept agreements on this footing. Representatives of the War Department are not authorized to negotiate agreements on ordinary terms of rental for use and occupation, nor to settle locally any such claims for amounts in excess of the direct and substantial loss inflicted on claimants by the military occupation.

The loss in such cases must be taken to be the amount (if any) which the claimants can reasonably prove that they would have realized from their property or business in war time, if their premises had not been occupied by the military authorities or other authorities responsible for necessary measures of national defence. Rent payable to a superior landlord, interest on invested capital, and standing charges for which an owner or tenant is liable (before he could secure any return from his property or business) are not to be reckoned (apart from the earning capacity of the property or business in war time) as "loss due to military occupation." Owners will be indemnified against charges for occupier's rates in the following manner: Ordinarily the owner should pay the rates in the first instance and should acknowledge liability for them in Army Form W 3005, but they should then be included in the periodic payment which he can claim against the War Department. If, however, in any case, the owner does not agree to pay, the Treasury valuer should be informed (see paragraph 33), and in that case no payment need be made by the owner. These agreements may also contain provision for the actual cost of additional services (e.g., in connection with heating apparatus, light, &c.) which it may in some cases be preferable to leave in the hands of the owners of the building. Agreements on A.F. W 3005 further provide for reinstatement (or payment in lieu thereof) by the War Department in respect of any dilapidations or damage due to the military occupation, having regard to the condition of the premises at the date of entry and such deterioration as would have occurred (by reason of fair wear and tear) if military occupation had not taken place.

A.O. 137

6. For paragraph 30 substitute—

30. No agreement on A.F. W 3005 should be completed on behalf of the War Department or passed for signature to the representatives of the other side, until a certificate has been signed by one of the expert agents or valuers of the War Department that the terms are in accordance with the instructions already issued for assessment on a basis of loss. But members of Standing Committees may negotiate terms for occupation on this basis (and may refer to the district valuers of the Inland Revenue Department for any information as to local values or conditions relevant to the question of loss) provisionally on the understand-
